

Welcome to Findaharp.com

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE

Findaharp.com is a brand-new website dedicated to the harp community. Our core desire is to make it easier for harp teachers, lovers, and enthusiasts to find the harp of their dreams. Harpists have found it is especially difficult to purchase a harp when there is no lovely harp store nearby, so Findaharp.com decided to bring the store to you.

Our website features a robust search engine with six different filters: size, make, model, finish, price, location. No other harp website features this level of search precision.

Findaharp.com hopes to create a community where harpists can share their knowledge and experiences related to purchasing a harp. The side-bar to the right details our collaborative buyer's guide. Future plans also include a blog where questions about purchasing a harp can be asked and answered.

Other future features include more pictures of each harp, links to YouTube videos of the harps in action, and more store partners! Feel free to mention us to your favorite harp seller!!

CONTRIBUTE TO OUR BUYER'S GUIDE

Help new harpists in our community by sharing your knowledge and experience.

We want our buyer's guide to be a collaboration of experienced harp buyers who know what to look for and what questions to ask.

If you have something you wish to contribute, write up your helpful hints or your helpful experience and submit it on our contact / about page.

If you know of a great link or video about buying a harp, you may submit it also and we will attempt to contact the content creator for permission to include it in our guide.

*Thank you from
